ROB HERON & THE TEA PAD
ORCHESTRA

"Newcastle's finest swing-honkytonk-rockabilly band" - fRoots

Rob Heron & The Tea Pad Orchestra don't care what genre you choose to put them in – western swing, country blues, ragtime hokum or whatever else – as long as you understand that they're 100% sincere and 100% immersed in this stuff. This is no lazy pastiche, no dressing up box. They live and breathe this music and want you to get immersed with them.

THE SHACKLETON TRIO
 An exciting blend of folk, Americana, and self-penned material instrumentally influenced by British, American and Scandinavian folk traditions.

AWKWARD FAMILY PORTRAITS
 Glasgow based contemporary Folk and Americana band. Youthful and energetic.

MICHAEL LITTLEFIELD
 Lead singer and guitar player from Newcastle's hottest rhythm & blues band, The King Bees, playing a solo acoustic set.

DJs ROB HERON & FRIENDS
Pub open from 12 noon on Sunday
Music 3.00pm - 9.00pm

THE HOLY BISCUIT ARTISTRY

An art and feasting collaboration that seeks to celebrate the stories of those who live and work in Shieldfield and question the roles of host and guest. Come and see our exhibition and visual collection of feasting and eating that tells Shieldfield and Newcastle's stories through recipes and food, as well as exploring the roles of guest and host. Throughout Artistry we'll be hosting events which invite you to cook, eat and explore the stories of Shieldfield. Join us for a cup of tea and a biscuit whilst you peruse our exhibition, swap your recipes and read our trusted recipe books. Saturday 1.00pm - 4.00pm

36 LIME STREET GALLERY PRINTED POSTERS AND BROADSIDES EXHIBITION

The gallery at 36 Lime Street becomes transformed into a working studio as resident artist Theresa Easton creates a range of hand printed posters in response to George Osborne's vanity project, the Northern Powerhouse, manifesting as 'The Great Exhibition of the North' (GEOTN). Easton provides social commentary on the fiscal crumbs offered by government funds and corporate sponsorship on this Artwashing event (GEOTN) by inviting community groups to contribute to the work being made. Saturday & Sunday 12 noon - 4.00pm

MAKE YOUR OWN PRINTED POSTER OR PLACARD AT 36 LIME STREET

Exhibiting artist and studio resident, Theresa Easton, will be helping visitors print their own poster using traditional letter press printing. Make your counter-cultural poster as part of The Other Great Exhibition of the North. Drop-in between 1.00pm - 3.00pm on Sunday. Fundraising event, small donations welcome - pay what you can!

COBALT STUDIOS OCCUPY AND MAKE

Come and check out our unfolding 'Occupy and Make' artists installation in the backyard. There will be an opportunity to participate. Saturday 9.00pm - 5.00pm

KILN CERAMIC WORKSHOPS

Over the festival Kiln will be hosting ceramic workshops for all ages, at our studio where we will invite the public to come in and make ceramic tiles which we will then glaze and fire. Everyone will be welcome and we look forward to hosting a festival ceramics, food and drinks at Kiln. We want to offer people the chance to get to grips with clay and find a passion that they may then want to pursue. Both days 10.00am - 5.00pm

We look forward to giving everyone a fantastic creative experience similar to our monster making workshops during the open studios.

THE BISCUIT FACTORY
